P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the protection of life, limb and property is a fundamental responsibility of government; and

WHEREAS, the school safety patrols are rendering invaluable civic service in protecting school children from the hazards of traffic, thereby helping our government greatly in this basic duty and thus enriching the state; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the government and citizenry of this state I commend these faithful volunteer civilian defenders;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 9, 1942, as

and I urge all citizens to pause and pay due tribute to the boys and girls who are enrolled in school safety patrols and to give full cooperation to this valuable traffic safety effort, because only through public cooperation can the patrols be instrumental in saving lives and preventing accidents.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 30th day of April, 1942.
